Ugandan President Condemns CIA

Reuter

KAMPLA, Uganda, July 9—President Idi Amin of Uganda has accused the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency of trying to foment confusion and divisions in Uganda.

In a speech to elders in his home district of West Nile last week, broadcast by Radio Uganda this weekend, he said that Uganda's relations with the outside world were very good, except that "now there are are a few elements of Israelis or some CIA who are coming into Uganda and trying to confuse the people."
